

Graduate Program in Translation

www4.uwm.edu/letsci/translation

UWM's Graduate Program in Translation offers translator training that combines high-quality instruction with flexible scheduling. Classes are offered in the evenings and online to accommodate working & distance-learning students.

The program can prepare you to:

- become an in-house translator,
- become a freelancer,
- start up a translation company,
- continue in academia,
- meet continuing education requirements.

UWM's Translation Program is recognized by the American Translators Association (ATA) as an Approved Translation & Interpreting School.

Master of Arts in Language, Literature, and Translation

The MA in Translation is a 10-course, 30-credit degree. Students complete the degree in 2-5 years in one of the following language pairs. Other language pairs may be available on a case-by-case basis.

- English to Spanish
- Spanish to English

- French to English
- German to English

All Courses Available Online

Starting in Fall 2011, the MA degree can be completed entirely online. UWM also offers a 24-credit Graduate Certificate in Translation. For more information, please see www4.uwm.edu/letsci/translation.
